

COMING TO THE BAR

AN INFORMATION & NETWORKING EVENING HOSTED BY VICTORIAN
WOMEN LAWYERS AND WOMEN BARRISTERS ASSOCIATION

Are you thinking of becoming a barrister? Do you wonder what it's like to wear a wig and gown on a regular basis?

Come along and hear from a panel of informative and entertaining speakers who will give you an inside view of life in chambers including the bar readers' course, bar exam, the clerking system and more.

This will be followed by an opportunity to meet the presenters and other women barristers over drinks and canapés in the Essoign Club.

PANELLISTS INCLUDE:

SAMANTHA MARKS SC, BELLE LANE AND CAROLYN SYMONS

For more information contact Diana Price, Women Barristers Association (dianaprice@vicbar.com.au) or Chloe McGuinness, VWL Networking Committee (chloe.m@cantwellfamilylawyers.com.au)

DATE

Monday 28 October 2013

TIME

5:30pm panel presentation followed by drinks and canapés from 6.30pm

LOCATION

Neil McPhee Room & The Essoign Club
Owen Dixon Chambers, 205 William St, Melbourne

COST

Free for VWL members
$40 non-members

REGISTRATION

www.vwl.asn.au/events

Contact vwl@liv.asn.au with any registration queries