GEELONG NETWORKING EVENT

Victorian Women Lawyers invites you to join the Membership Committee and LIV President, Belinda Wilson, for an evening of networking in Geelong.

Guests are invited to reflect on the many and varied legal career paths available for women working in regional Victoria, and share experiences over canapés and refreshments. Women lawyers and law students are encouraged to attend.

Learn more about Victorian Women Lawyers and how to get involved: register for this event using the details below.

BELINDA WILSON – LAW INSTITUTE OF VICTORIA
PRESIDENT 2018

As president of the Law Institute of Victoria, Belinda Wilson aims to inspire lawyers, challenge daily habits and think outside the usual confines. Belinda has been a regional practitioner since 2002, predominately based in Gippsland. She has worked as both corporate counsel and the chief executive officer for Port Phillip Bay Scallops, and currently has her own consulting business that provides a combination of legal, government and industry-specific advice.
