

Victorian Women Lawyers and the Bendigo Law Association present
AN EVENING WITH COURT OF APPEAL JUSTICES - PAMELA TATE AND KIM HARGRAVE

Victorian Women Lawyers and the Bendigo Law Association invite you to join Justices Tate and Hargrave of the Court of Appeal for a discussion and networking event.

Their Honours will speak about their careers in the law and the growing diversity of the legal profession.

Following the formal part of the evening, guests will have the opportunity to speak with their Honours, network and share experiences.

This event is open to lawyers and law students.

Refreshments and canapés provided.

JUSTICE PAMELA TATE

Justice Tate graduated from Monash University in 1988 with a first class Honours degree in Law. Prior to studying Law, she studied Philosophy at Otago University and the University of Oxford. She joined the Victorian Bar in 1991, having served as an associate to Sir Daryl Dawson of the High Court for two years. At the Bar she specialised in Constitutional law, Administrative law and the law of trade practices. She was appointed Senior Counsel in 2002. Her Honour was the Solicitor-General for Victoria from 2003 until her appointment to the Court of Appeal in September 2010. Her Honour is a Fellow of Monash University and holds a Doctor of Laws conferred honoris causa in May 2018. She is currently the Patron for the Women Barrister's Association (Vic).

JUSTICE KIM HARGRAVE

Justice Hargrave graduated with a Bachelor of Laws with Honours from the University of Melbourne in 1978, and served articles at the firm now known as Corrs Chambers Westgarth. His Honour joined the Victorian Bar in 1980 and was appointed Queen's Counsel in 1995. While at the Bar, his Honour had a general commercial and corporations practice. His Honour was appointed to the Supreme Court of Victoria in April 2005. His Honour served as the Principal Judge of the Commercial Court (and its predecessor the Commercial and Equity Division) from 2013 until his appointment to the Court of Appeal in December 2017.
