

CROSS-INDUSTRY NETWORKING EVENT

with guest speaker Jo Stanley

VWL has partnered with the Victorian Women's CPA Committee for their first ever cross-industry networking event, bringing together women in the legal and accounting industries.

The event will be hosted by writer, presenter and comedian, Jo Stanley. With a longstanding career in radio, including The Matt & Jo Show on Fox FM, and more recently the Jo & Lehmo for Breakfast show on GOLD, Jo is famous for her witty banter and warm authenticity. She is a dynamic speaker and is passionate about gender equality, creativity, literacy and wellbeing and using various platforms to give women a voice. Jo is kept busy as a columnist, a TV presenter on House of Wellness TV and with her 'Play Like a Girl' book series written in collaboration with the AFLW. Jo was also recently appointed to the Ministerial Council for Women's Equality, and is responsible for advising the State Minister for Women in relation to strategies for gender equality across Victoria.

Please join us for an evening of lively discussion and networking, accompanied by canapés and drinks, for a unique opportunity to engage with other professional women outside the legal industry.
