New Law in the Suburbs

A panel discussion on how law firms can enhance productivity and wellbeing

The Membership Committee of Victorian Women Lawyers welcomes you to join us for a lively discussion, where our diverse panel of speakers will share their insight on how to reinvent the way contemporary law firms operate, to enhance productivity and wellbeing.

Guests will also have the opportunity to network over a drink and some delicious canapes.

This event provides an opportunity for suburban based lawyers to network.

Melissa Lyon, Associate Principal, Hive Legal

Melissa is committed to focusing on clients' needs, delivering the best outcomes for them and continually improving the way legal services are delivered. Hive Legal's commitment to working collaboratively with its clients enables Melissa to deliver strategy, innovative solutions and client care, all of which improve clients' experiences.

Jennifer Tutty, Principal, Studio Legal

Jennifer practises across a wide spectrum of intellectual property, media, entertainment, technology and commercial law matters. Jennifer's services are highly sought after by successful media personalities, creative agencies, artists, music festivals, hospitality entrepreneurs and other creative businesses. As a business owner herself, Jennifer is able to combine her commercial experience and comprehensive legal knowledge to deliver practical legal advice and strategic results for her clients.

Lucy Percy, Principal, Head and Heart Estate Planning

Lucy Percy is the Principal of Percy Legal, launching as Head and Heart Estate Planning in August 2019. Choosing to launch with a service that is narrow, but deep is a deliberate decision to maintain her own wellbeing and that of her family. Leaning on her own personal experience in small business, that of her clients and colleagues over her years as a suburban general practice lawyer, Lucy is looking forward to adding to the growing cheer of practitioners who are lighting a different path with their success.

Nick Valentine, Counsellor, Healing Phase

Nick is a Level 4 member of the 'Australian Counselling Association' and a Clinical Counsellor with the ACA 'College of Clinical Counsellors'. Nick has worked as a qualified therapist for over 10 years. Nick's extensive experience across government and private organisations has included lawyer-specific wellbeing programs, and individual and group therapy with adults, adolescents and children in their struggle with complex emotions and circumstances.
