ALISTAIR DUNBAR

Alistair is a Commercial & Franchising Lawyer at Legalite. His key interests are in franchising and start-up advice, and he has established a firm foundation in these areas through a variety of transactional and in-house experience. As Legalite's 'tech champion' Alistair also leads technology and innovation projects, including designing automated chat-bots and contracts. In his spare time, Alistair is a children's book author having recently published 'Every Horse Needs a Hat', illustrated by his colleague and fellow lawyer Lauren Kelindeman. He also volunteers weekly at the Mental Health Legal Centre.

ANNAMIEK VAN LOON

Annamiek is a criminal defence lawyer at Dooge + George and works out of their Sunshine office after being admitted to practice in February 2017. Prior to joining Doogue + George, Annamiek was an Associate to a Judge at the County Court of Victoria. Her Judge presided solely over criminal matters, giving her exposure to a vast array of criminal charges and hearings. Annamiek prides herself on listening to her clients, understanding their story and circumstances and using this information to advocate for the best possible outcome.

CHRISTINA VILLANO

Christina Villano is an experienced work injuries lawyer in Maurice Blackburn's Frankston office. Christina joined the firm in 2014 and assists people with a variety of legal matters relating to their WorkCover claims. For most clients, having to navigate the complexities of the law on top of that makes it feel like a near impossible task. Christina strives to minimise stress for her clients, by ensuring they clearly understand their rights and entitlements and get deserving outcomes. Christina is driven by a strong sense of justice and she aims to help people achieve that sense of justice within their own lives.

SUSAN PINCUS

Susan Pincus is a National Careers Professional at The College of Law. Susan is a qualified careers practitioner and has extensive experience working with law students and professionals looking to build their employability and value proposition. Susan provides tailored coaching to individuals entering the job market and those looking to change career direction. Susan has a background in career development, human resources and recruitment across a range of diverse sectors. She regularly facilitates and runs a range of workshops around employability, career management and job search strategy.
