

Remaining Resilient When Finding Your First Job

Panel Discussion

Victorian Women Lawyers (VWL) is proud to invite you to a discussion on Remaining Resilient when Finding Your First Job.

VWL's theme for 2021 is Resilience and Re-emergence. We are passionate about supporting young lawyers and graduates at the beginning of their career which can be a difficult and stressful time. This event was specifically created to support students and graduates prepare for the competitive legal professional environment, especially so in the new COVID 'normal' to equip them with the tools they need to develop their resilience and maintain their wellbeing and self-care.

Our panelists offer tips, tricks and their own experience navigating their first jobs into their dream careers, and offer particular guidance on navigating your career whilst adapting to working during a pandemic.

This panel is facilitated by Bonnie Phillips, Deakin Law School Alumni Chapter President and Principal Lawyer, Head of Family Law Coulter Roache.
