

Coming to the Bar: Online panel discussion and networking

VWL is proud to partner with Svenson Barristers and the Women Barristers' Association in presenting its Coming to the Bar panel discussion and networking event.

Join us to hear from a panel of engaging speakers who will give you an inside view of life as a barrister including the Bar readers' course, the Bar exam and more.

Our panel discussion will be moderated by Anna Svenson, Director and Principal Clerk of Svenson Barristers.

The discussion will be followed by an opportunity to network with the panellists virtually in small groups.

DATE: Tuesday, 19 October 2021

COST: FREE for members and non-members

TIME: 7:45am to 9:00am for the panel discussion and networking

REGISTER FOR FREE ONLINE:
<https://vwl.asn.au/events-3/>

FORMAT: Digital webinar - registered attendees will receive a link via email

This event is supported by Svenson Barristers and the Women Barristers' Association.

VERONICA HOLT

Before commencing at the Bar, Veronica practised as a solicitor in the commercial disputes and workplace relations teams at Gadens. Immediately before joining the Bar she was a Senior Associate to the Honourable Justice Almond of the Supreme Court of Victoria. Veronica accepts briefs to appear and advise in commercial, public law and common law matters. She also accepts briefs direct from in-house counsel.

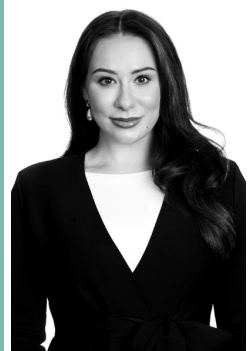

UTHRA RAMACHANDRAN

Uthra came to the Bar with diverse legal experience. She commenced her legal career at Middletons (now K & L Gates) and worked on matters in insolvency, inquests, and general commercial litigation matters. She was also an Associate to his Honour Judge Howard AM QC in the Criminal Division of the County Court. Uthra has also lectured and tutored in Criminal Law and Torts and has tutored in Administrative Law and Statutory Interpretation at Monash University. Uthra is particularly interested in criminal, regulatory, commercial, common law, and public law matters. She accepts briefs to appear and advise.

BETH WARNOCK

Beth started her career in LaTrobe Valley. She is a strong, experienced, and down to earth advocate. She accepts briefs to appear and advise. She is an excellent negotiator and is a creative problem solver. Beth has worked on a broad range of matters and welcomes both country and circuit briefs. She has practised in Crime, both summary and indictable matters, Family law, both property and parenting and has extensive experience in intervention order matters and Child Protection matters.

ELLA ZAUNER

Prior to coming to the Bar, Ella was a solicitor at DLA Piper and worked in-house at a commercial construction and development company. She has worked in broad range of commercial matters but has also advised on corporate governance, strategy, and risk. Ella was also part of a small team of in-house lawyers that were tasked to respond to the Royal Commission into Misconduct in the Banking, Superannuation and Financial Services Industry. Ella is particularly interested in insolvency matters, contractual disputes, banking, and finance litigation. She accepts briefs to appear and advise.