Victorian Women Lawyers invites you to join us for a practical workshop exploring conscious leadership in the law. The workshop will explore the theory and practice of conscious leadership, and tools and practices for conscious leaders in the law.

VWL is thrilled to have Artemis Evangelidi as our guest presenter for this workshop.

Artemis Evangelidi, Founder of Aipeia Consulting, is a conscious leadership consultant and coach. Commencing her career as a Corporate/Commercial Lawyer, Artemis spent over 16 years working in private practice and later as in house counsel for multinational corporations around the world.

Artemis has dedicated her career to empowering others through Conscious Leadership. She is passionate about raising global consciousness through integrating personal development, evidence based psychology, wisdom practices and the Conscious Leadership attributes. Her first book, "Life: Thoughts That Make The World Go Around (And Up, Not Down)" was published in late 2019.

This event has been designed to meet the CPD needs of lawyers. If this session does meet your CPD needs according to the Legal Profession Uniform Continuing Professional Development (Solicitors) Rules 2015, you may claim 1 CPD unit for Professional Skills for each hour of attendance (breaks not included).

Tickets to this event are strictly limited.

This event is hosted by Clarence - Workplaces for Professionals.
