

Victorian Women Lawyers & Women Barristers' Association are proud to present the 2023 DAME ROMA MITCHELL MEMORIAL LUNCH

We invite our members and the wider legal community to a two course lunch and an in-depth discussion. This year Jane Caro AM and Zoe Condliffe will share their reflections on the 2023 United Nations International Women's Day theme Cracking the Code: Innovation for a gender equal future.

Jane Caro AM is a Walkley award winning Australian columnist, author, novelist, feminist, public education activist and social commentator. In a past life she was a multi-award winning advertising copywriter and an academic.

Jane has written books on a variety of subjects, including schools and education, religion, feminism and ageing. She has published 13 books including: "Unbreakable" Women Share Stories of Resilience and Hope (2017), Accidental Feminists (2019) and was the editor of Destroying the Joint: Why women have to change the world (2013). Her latest book is her first foray into adult fiction, published in 2022, The Mother is a best seller.

Jane Caro appears by arrangement with Claxton Speakers International.

Zoe Condliffe is the founder and CEO of She's a Crowd, an innovative platform where data activists are compiling a dataset about gender-based violence. She is also a gender advocate and researcher. With experience in NGO's and the start up sectors, she has become an outspoken leader in the social change sector.

Zoe has been named one of the Top 100 most influential, creative and proactive people in Melbourne by the Age, Women's Weekly Women of the Future for Innovation and Technology and her company was listed on the Smart Company Smart30 List for 2018 and 2019. She was, in addition to this, a Young Social Pioneer with the Foundation for Young Australians and she was a finalist for the Victorian Young Achiever Awards 2020.
