GEELONG NETWORKING EVENT

Bringing the Legal Community Together

Following Victorian Women Lawyers' 2024 theme 'Community' we invite all practitioners from private practice, public sector, in-house, academics, and law students to join us for this event.

Hear from a leader of the Geelong community Diana Taylor.

Diana is a leader, lawyer, business owner, company director and with truly unique Australian Football experience, is the Vice President of one of the world's oldest sporting clubs and the 2022 AFL Premiers, the Geelong Football Club. Diana completed her law degree at Deakin University and after many years working in law firms and businesses, including as Netball Australia's General Counsel, now operates her own business, Diana Taylor Legal Consulting,

Diana will share what 'community' means to her, and how she has integrated her legal career and interests with her strong sense of community.

The event will be held at Deakin University, Geelong Campus with refreshments to be provided.

This event is a collaborative project between VWL's Outreach and Women in Public Sector Committees.

Tickets are limited and registrations are necessary.
