Jocelyn Chong is not your everyday speaker. She is a catalyst for transformation—empowering, uplifting, and energising audiences from intimate gatherings to grand conventions. With elegant articulation and unique inspiration, she creates an electric connection with every person in the room, igniting their potential to become the very best version of themselves. Drawing from her diverse and extensive background in business leadership, Jocelyn intimately understands the complex challenges faced by today's organisations and their leaders. What sets her apart is her remarkable ability to distill powerful insights that don't merely address these challenges—they provide the rocket fuel needed to propel teams and individuals into unprecedented tiers of growth and development.

Diana Dimitrov is Partner in Business Advisory at William Buck. Diana's personable and honest nature allows her to build fast rapport with her client's and ascertain their needs quickly. With over 25 years of experience and her strong belief that communication is key - Diana's collaborative approach and strong relationships across the firm allows her to achieve the best result for her clients. Diana is extremely passionate about helping her clients gain financial freedom and independence.

She leads the Family Law Service Team, with the primary focus on clients going through a separation or divorce - assisting at all stages of the separation process, empowering them with knowledge and tools to help them achieve financial independence. Diana's specialisation also includes family groups – ensuring a most satisfactory structure is in place and is aligned with the client's succession and estate plan. She also enjoys educating, supporting and empowering the next generation as part of their family plans. Outside of work, Diana can be found exploring the local markets for their unique produce.

Lana Davey is a Principal Solicitor at KHQ Lawyers, and is an experienced, highly skilled, and well-regarded family law practitioner. Whilst Lana's practice extends to all aspects of family law, she has a special interest in complex financial and property matters, parenting matters, financial agreements, and litigation. Lana is known for her strategic aptitude, careful judgement, and seasoned negotiation and litigation skills.

Lana has a broad practice having acted for high-profile individuals and high net worth families with complex business and third-party interests. Having come from a longstanding farming family, Lana maintains a special interest in farming cases and family businesses and is accordingly uniquely placed to understand the challenges and complexities associated with multi-generational wealth and the importance of its preservation.
