

SPEED NETWORKING: DIVERSE WOMEN AND GENDER DIVERSE PEOPLES IN THE LAW

The Victorian Women Lawyers' Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Committee is proud to invite diverse people in the law to attend a fabulous night of structured networking. Attendees will be placed on a table of 5 and rotate once. Each table will have conversation starters. Diverse people include but are not limited to people who identify as culturally and linguistically diverse, LGBTQIA+, First Nations persons and persons with a disability.

Allies and supporters are welcome!

Everybody should feel like they are welcomed and belong regardless of their identity or background.

This event creates a safe space for people of different identities to connect with each other and celebrate visibility of a diverse legal community.

VWL is thrilled to have Her Honour Judge My Anh Tran as our keynote speaker to open the event. Judge Tran was appointed as a Judge of the County Court in 2020. During Her Honour's time at the County Court, Her Honour was the Judge in Charge of Self-Representing Litigation in the General List of the Common Law Division and currently continues her role as the co-chair of the Diversity and Community Relations Committee.

Her Honour is strongly supportive of a more diverse legal culture and will speak about her experience as a mother and queer woman of colour in the legal profession.
